100% Nero d'Avola

This wine was the first single varietal wine to be produced from Nero D'Avola grapes, first made in 1984. The idea of this noble wine originated from the desire to produce a great Sicilian red that could stand alongside the highest quality wines in existence in the international wine-making industry. Aged in oak for 18 months and bottle for the same period. Ruby red with garnet highlights. Ripe fruit, irises and spice on the nose. Strong, round and well-balanced. Great persistence.
